Western States Golf Association

Western States Golf Association (WSGA) was founded in 1954 to unite African American golf clubs of the western United States under one umbrella. The organization is composed of 31 member clubs based in Arizona, California, Colorado, Nevada, Oregon and Washington.

WSGA continues to preserve and promote the game of golf while providing networking opportunities for member clubs. Through its programs, WSGA offers friendly player competitions, promotes continuing skill development, supports young golfers by sponsoring Junior Golf and scholarship programs and nurturing the love of golf in others.

Northwest Golf Association

Northwest Golf Association (NWGA), formed in 1985 and renamed NWGA in 1991, consists of 5-member clubs located in Oregon and Washington.

NWGA's purpose is to promote the game of golf by fostering relationships between member clubs through organized events and general camaraderie.

Leisure Hour Golf Club

Leisure Hour Golf Club is a chartered member of Western States Golf Association (WSGA) and Northwest Golf Association (NWGA) and adheres to the by-laws and constitutions of each association.

LHGC was founded in 1944 in Portland, Oregon with the purpose of increasing minority representation on public golf courses. Among the names of our pioneer members are Vernon Gaskin, Stephen Wright, Walter Ricks, Gladys Ricks, Sam Wagner, and Shelby Golden.

In the summer of 1944 LHGC held its first tournament, "Pacific Northwest Negro Amateur Golf Tournament" at Eastmoreland Golf Course. Since our inception, we have grown to include a host of local tournament venues, including Tualatin Country Club (1951 to 1966), Broadmoor, Heron Lakes, Colwood National, The Resort at the Mountain and Meriwether National Golf Courses.

LHGC prides itself in the diverse cultures and backgrounds of its members and welcomes golfers of all skill levels. Our emphasis continues to focus on increasing minority presence on public golf courses with the exclusion of none.

We invite you to join LHGC as we continue to promote the game of golf through regular golf outings, tournaments and programs designed for skilled amateurs, youth and those new to the game.
